

Willamette Valley Homegrowers Member Registration Form

Managed by the 501(c)(3) nonprofit agency Left Coast Community Events, the Willamette Valley Homegrowers is a group designed to build community within the Oregon Cannabis Culture by providing members with access to educational seminars, private events and forums to share knowledge and information.

Membership Donation Registration and Renewal Fees

- Legacy (first year) members will be asked to donate a $25 registration fee (and $10 donation per seminar) to continue as a member in good standing on or before April 20, 2020.
- New members will be asked to donate a $50 registration fee that includes all 2020 seminars.
- Members of the community interested in attending just one seminar will be asked to donate only $20.
- Members of the community can join the Willamette Valley Homegrowers when submitting an application to the Oregon Homegrown Challenge.

Membership Benefits

- Invitations to attend members-only private seminars and organization meetings for a small donation fee.
- Members will be able to purchase tickets to seminars hosted at Whirled Pies produced by Left Coast Community Events at a discount.
- Sponsorship opportunities for individual events including premier seating, private tables, and other perks at Whirled Pies seminars produced by Left Coast Community Events.
- Access to network on the private Willamette Valley Homegrowers Facebook page group and the Willamette Valley Homegrowers Newsletter.
- Engage and direct the topics for future seminar themes and/or assist with organizing future seminars.
- Members can interact in an intimate setting with informed sponsors and speakers after each seminar.
